Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell
Acting Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Cabell:

I refer to your letter, dated 27 December, concerning a Central Intelligence Agency representative to speak to the Command and Staff School. We regret that Mr. Amory is not available on 27 February; however, I am sure Mr. [] will provide us with an excellent lecture and it is a pleasure to welcome him to speak to the CSS.

Lt Col C. M. Taylor, a member of the Command and Staff School faculty, has been designated to assist Mr. [] on arrangements pertinent to the presentation, i.e. travel, school facilities, suggested lecture details, etc. Colonel Taylor will contact Mr. [] by mail for further coordination.

A copy of "A Guide to the Air University" is inclosed for Mr. []

Sincerely,

S/
LLOYD P. HOPWOOD
